Tackling Inequalities in a Changing Borough

- Come and have your say about how Hackney Council tackles inequality in De Beauvoir and in the borough.
- How has the area changed since you first came here, and how has that change impacted you?

“There can be no doubt that Hackney is a far better place than it was 10 or 15 years ago – cleaner, safer, and more prosperous. It is a better place to live, to work and to raise a family. But that success has brought with it a whole new set of challenges centred on the widening gap between those at either end of our borough’s social spectrum.

We want to create space for people to share their feelings about the way the borough is changing and to tell us how the change is affecting them, in both positive and negative terms.

We want people to give us their ideas about how we can promote community cohesion, and protect what is best about Hackney.”

Jules Pipe, Mayor of Hackney
