--	---------------------

Outline

For the Future world of work in this segment we will focus on London's changing economy, labour market, external drivers, data and trends. To explore the risks and opportunities these changes present, in addition to the impact on policy and the economy on the areas below.

- 1 The future of London's economy and the business environment in the next 5-10 years for the Political, Economic, Social, Technological, Legal and Environment.
- 2 The nature of employment – the likely changes to the business environment, workforce and the nature of work.
- 3 The potential for polarisation and inequalities from the changes to employment and skills.

Presenters: Resolution Foundation and Community Union.
