

Children and Young People Scrutiny Commission 24th February 2020 Improving Outcomes for Young Black Men Project	Item No 5
---	--------------------------------

Outline

The Improving Outcomes for Young Black Men Programme (YBM) aims to tackle inequalities for black boys and young black men in Hackney. This is a partnership programme which involves both statutory and community partners and has been operation since 2015. The attached report provides an update on the progress of this project.

In attendance

- Solomon Rose, Graduate Trainee
- Sonia Khan, Head of Policy and Strategic Delivery

Action

The Commission is asked to review the report and to raise any questions that it may have with officers in attendance.