1. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

It is a statutory requirement for Local Authorities and their partners to produce the joint strategic needs assessment (JSNA). When planned and executed well, the JSNA will inform and underpin policy, commissioning, key strategies and other local plans that seek to improve the health of our residents. Therefore it is essential that the format of the JSNA fulfills the purpose and it is therefore necessary to have a forward plan and an effective delivery process. Today's presentation will describe the new JSNA process in detail (please refer to the background paper).

This proposal has been presented at the Public Health Senior Management Team, Adult Social Care and Integration Senior Management Team and Health Inequality Steering Group meetings.

2. RECOMMENDATIONS

The Health and Wellbeing Board is asked to:

- Approve the new process
- Contribute to the annual JSNA work plan as described in the process
- Advise on the best time to initiate the annual JSNA process
