

Special Joint Scrutiny of Child Q June 13th 2022 Item 7 - Strategic Response to Child Q Serious Case Review	Item No 7
---	--------------------------------

Outline

Key statutory bodies (Metropolitan Police, London Borough of Hackney, Mayors Office for Policing and Crime) have been requested to set out their response to the Child Q Serious Case Review in relation to:

- The Initial response and actions taken;
- Lessons learnt and identified priorities for future
- Actions taken (or planned) to engage, involve and reassure the local community and other stakeholders.

Attachments

- Briefings from:
 - (i) Metropolitan Police
 - (ii) London Borough of Hackney and
 - (iii) Mayors Office for Policing and Crime (MOPAC) (ATTACHED)

Representing Metropolitan Police - Met HQ & Central East Borough Command Unit

- Borough Commander Marcus Barnett CE-CU
- Area Commander Paul Brogden - Frontline Policing MET Headquarters
- Detective Superintendent Adam Ghaboos - CE-CU
- Chief Inspector Singh Lucky L - CE-CU

Representing London Borough of Hackney

- Mark Carroll, Chief Executive, Hackney Council
- Jacquie Burke, Group Director Children and Education
- Annie Gammon, Director of Education
- Sonia Khan, Head of Policy & Strategic Delivery
- Mayor Phillp Glanville
- Cllr Susan Fajana Thomas, Cabinet Lead for Community Safety
- Cllr Anntionette Bramble, Cabinet Lead for Education & Children's Social Care

Attending Mayors Office for Policing and Crime (MOPAC)

- Kenny Bowie, Director of Strategy & MPS Oversight